SNOW OR BAD WEATHER POLICY:

If it is necessary to cancel lessons due to bad weather such as snow and ice, a recorded message will be placed on the answering machine "Classes have been canceled". Please appreciate that we will not have enough time to call everyone back. There will be NO reduction of tuition. All classes cancelled will be rescheduled. The dates will be specified by the instructor.

HEALTH:

You are the best judge of your child's health and we trust you will not bring a sick child to the studio. However, if in the opinion of the teaching staff your child is sick, we will call you to come and pick-up your child. Please inform the administration and instructors of any health issues such as allergies, injuries or condition.

DISCARD POLICY:

The studio reserves the right to cancel the enrollment of a child for the following reasons:

- Non-payment or excessive late payment of fees.
- Not observing the rules of the studio.
- Physical and/or verbal abuse of any person.

INJURIES:

Parents, legal guardians of minor students, and adult students waive the right to any legal action for any injury sustained on school property resulting from normal class activity or any other activity conducted by the students before, during, or after class.

KEEP INFORMED:

It is the responsibility of the parent or adult student to be aware of all school activities, including viewing days, rehearsals, performances, and the dates the school is open and closed. The school will post notices of the dates and provide copies of the school's calendar of events. It is the responsibility of students and parents to ensure they are informed of any changes to the schedule by regularly checking the bulletin board and reading the newsletters that are sent home and available in the lobby. Thornhill School of Ballet is not responsible for lost or stolen items.
